Ten Men Killed and a Number Seriously If Not Fatally Wounded-Petition to the Governor Demanding the Removal of Sheriff Smith-A Regiment of Soldiers Now Guarding the Jail.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 11.-The Hawes murder mystery has been solved! A terrible riot has resulted. The mob stormed the jail, bent on lynching Hawes, the murderer. A sheriff's posse opened fire on the jailed on warrants. maddened crowd and shot to kill. As the volleys rang sharply on the air a score of every man killed was shot in the back, showcitizens threw up their hands with wild cries and groans of pain and sunk to the ground dying or wounded. There were ten killed outright, two fatally shot and ten wounded more or less severely. The city is in a tumult as very damaging to the officers. of intense excitement and Hawes is still safe in jail.

The story of the terrible affair is as fol-

Saturday afternoon the announcement was given out that the mutilated body of the missing mother, Mrs. Emma K. The rumor proved true, and in half an hour thousands of excited men, women and children hurried forward to the lake. The suspicion had gone abroad early in the day that likely the body had been secreted there, as it was only about 200 yards from the Hawes

About 11 o'clock four determined men set to work to drag the lake with grappling hooks. Near 11 o'clock one of the hooks struck a heavy, yielding substance, and soon the inutilated corpse lay on the bank.

The combined strength of four men was down with heavy pieces of "fish-plate" railroad iron tied around the neck and waist of the murdered woman. Meanwhile the search for the body of the youngest child of Mrs. Hawes went on, but up to 8 o'clock Sunday night it had not been found. Late Saturday afternoon a mob began to congregate at Second and Third avenues and Nineteenth street. It swelled to fully 10,000 in number. Talk of lynching Hawes and his two negro accomplices in the murder was heard on every hand.

By Mayor Thompson's order Marshal Pack ard had surrounded the jail with a large posse. These men were armed with Winchester rifles and a Gatling gun.

At midnight Saturday the mob around the county jail began slowly pressing back the outer guard, and advanced down Twentyfirst street to the mouth of the alley leading to the jail entrance. The alley is about a hundred feet long and twenty wide, and is the only approach to the jail. When the crowd reached the mouth of the alley Sheriff Smith, from the jail, warned them to stand back time and again. He yelled to them to keep back, as they would be fired on if they advanced up the alley. Finally he called out: "I will count three, and if a man remains in the alley we will fire.

He counted three, and the crowd feel back a little, and the officers did not fire. This seemed to make the mob bolder, and again they pressed up the alley. Sheriff Smith yelled to them: "I will count five, and if you do not fail back we will fire." He counted five, while the mob hooted, yelled and continued to advance up the alley. Then the officers opened fire, which was at once returned by the mob.

At least a thousand shots were fired. Then the mob fell back leaving the ground covered with dead and wounded men. Several dead were hurriedly carried away by their friends licly living with another woman. before identified.

He seemed to feel that the mob would succeed in getting in the jail, and he dressed himself and expressed his readiness to accompany the crowd as soon as they reached him. He still stoutly asserts his innocence of the charge of having murdered his wife and child.

Sheriff Smith and Marshal Pickard both regret the terrible affair, but feel that they did their duty.

A petition to Governor Seay was circulated Sunday and received 10,000 signatures demanding the removal of Sheriff Smith.

All day Sunday Birmingham continued in a tumult of excitement. There was, however, no further attempt at storming the

The military seem to have complete control of the city, and it is hoped that no further resort to arms will be made. Col. BALTIMORE, Dec. 11 .- The spirit of meekness manifested by the state navy has emboldened the oyster pirates of the Chesapeake to the point of recklessness and auda city. They so far forgot themselves last night as to turn their guns on a passenger steamer. About 7:30 p. m. as the steamer Corsica, of the Chester River Steamboat company, was coming out of the Chester river on her way to Baltimore she passed a large fleet of dredgers at anchor. When the steamer passed them the pirates began to yell. One of the passengers of the steamer answered with a whoop. Russia and England Aspirants for His Favoritism.

RUSSIAN MILITARY OFFICER URGES OCCUPATION BY FORCE,

Unless Persia's Treaty Opening the Town of Karun to the English is Cancelled. Bagamoyo Still the Scene of Bloodshed. England Sends More Troops to Suakim Other Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Dec. 11.-England and Russia have for years been striving for ascendency in the shah's domains. The latter potentate has an embarrassing task to perform in choosing which of the two aspirants shall be admitted to avowed favoritism, and in true eastern fashion is coquetting with both.

Until within a few years English influence was predominant at Teheran, but either through awkward management or the steady encroachment of Russia on the north, a greatly increased respect for the power of the czar has been observable in the conduct of the "king of kings."

A generation ago many officers of the English army, chosen for their acquaintance with eastern languages and customs, entered the Persian service, and while bringing the troops to a higher state of efficiency, greatly increased the respect felt for England's greatness and military strength.

Since then the gigantic strides of Russis in Asia contrasted with the stationary attitude of England on the eastern frontier have seemed to denote the former as the power destined to dominate affairs in that continent and the shah has shown a natural inclination to worship the rising sun. Appreciating the value of Persia as an obstacle of more importance against a Russian advance than even Afghanistan, England has taken the alarm and is using every effort to recover her influence at the court of the shah.

The rumors which come from German sources should be accepted with caution. The embroilment of England with Russia would cause a secret gratification not difficult to understand, at Berlin, and the prominence given by the German press to each petty incident likely to provoke a rupture between the two powers is not done without encouragement from those high in authority.

Whatever should be the result in the event of such a war Russia would be weakened for years by it and incapacitated for combating the designs of Germany in western Europe. It is difficult to believe that England is deliberately courting Russia, unless she deems such a course indispensable to preserve India and is assured of the moral support, at least of the triple alliance. The incidents reported as showing a desire on the part of Persia to offend Russian officials resident there and to throw difficulties in the way of Russian subjects purchasing provisions are only important as exhibiting an unexpected courage on the part of the shah and a departure from his recent Russophile policy.

An Ultimatum Urged. Sr. Petersburg, Dec. 11.-A conference was held at the office of the minister of foreign affairs, regarding the crisis between Russia and Persia. A high military officer urged as an ultimatum, the occupation of Persia by a Russian force, unless the former country cancelled the treaty opening to the English, the town of Karun, a seaport of the Persian guif. M. De Giers, minister of foreign affairs, opposed the proposition and counseled moderation.

Fighting Continues at Bagamoyo. LONDON, Dec. 11 .- Telegrams from Zanzibar say that the fighting at Bagamoyo con tinues, and that the town is in flames. The German White Book shows that an October letter written by Bismarck to the consul at Zanzibar throws the entire blame for failure in east Africa upon the company's shoulders, who ought better to have respected the prejudices of the natives. The Arabs of the coast have thrown off allegiance to the sultan of Zanzibar, and are in complete possession. The East African company has lost over $1,750,000 and is ruined. LONDON, Dec. 11.-The government has ordered that troops from the Mediteranean stations be sent to Saukim. Troops will be sent from England to replace the forces taken from the Mediteranean garrisons. The request from Suakim for a further reinforcement of troops after last Saturday reconnoitering is believed to have been instigated by the government themselves as affording the easiest mode of retiring from an untenable attitude and from appearing to the public to entertain any misgivings as to the success of their plans.

Efforts to Detach Italy.

BERLIN, Dec. 11.—The Latin league, whose aim is to detach Italy from the tripple alliance, is openly advocated by both political parties in Spain. Senor Castellar goes to Spain to invite Republicans to join a coalition against Crispi's policy, and if possible effect an alliance between Italy, France, Spain and Belgium, as against the Austro-German alliance. Premier Armijo favors it.

CIVIL SERVIEE REFORM.

Meeting of the Association of Maryland. Resolutions Adopted.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 11.—At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Civil Service Reform association of Maryland a preamble and resolutions were adopted reciting the fact that Gen. Harrison had accepted and endorsed the civil service reform plank of the National Republican convention, and that he was, therefore entitled to look for the support of "a bold, vigilant and enlightened public opinion" in the fulfillment of the pledges of his party; the recent utterances of Senator Ingalls and other prominent public men render it necessary that the friends of good government should oppose, by all legitimate means, every attempt from any quarter to procure the violation of the civil service promises of the party; all civil service reform associations are urged to take such action as will keep their principles constantly before the public in such manner as will surely engage the attention of the incoming administration.

THE race question is giving the people of Felicity, Ohio, lots of trouble. The whites, and they are Republicans too, are determined the negro children shall not attend the white schools.

It's a good "sign of the times" to see so much railroad building in this State. Respectfully, Work of that character is brisker than Proprietors Magnolia Mills, Fourth St., ever and in a few years Kentucky will have what she has long needed in the way of such enterprises.

ONE election is no sooner done with now-a-days than another draws apace. The "dear people" are well looked after by aspiring politicians. In Franklin County there are four candidates for the Legislature already in the field.

SENATOR VAST is predicting extravagant appropriations when Republicans take full control at Washington. The Senator should just keep quiet and give them all the rope they want. They will hang themselves all the sooner.

A FEW days ago the Higginsport Board of Education closed the colored school, dismissed the teacher, and the negro children are now attending the white schools. There is much grumbling among the citizens in consequence of this action, and there promises to be serious trouble.

THE Ashland Republican notices the starting of the forge and rolling mill of the Norton Iron Works and exclaims: "Score another for Harrison and Protection." This Harrison and protection talk is all nonsense. If they are to have the credit for the starting up of mills they must take the blame for the shutting down of factories.

The "Official Figures" at Last.

Every since the recent Congressional election we have been trying to obtain the official vote of the district. On two or three occasions we have published what we thought was this official vote, only to find out later that such was not the case.

At last, however, the result of the official count has been published over the signature of the Secretary of State. It shows the following vote was cast:

For Thoma+H. Paynter	7.301
For T. H. Paynter	1.363
For Drury J. Burchett	0.821
For D. J. Burchett	7.447
For Major D. J. Burchett	17
For George W. Young	494
For G. W. Young	6

Total.37,379 "Thomas H. Paynter" beat "Drury J. Burchett" 6,480 votes, but "D. J. Burchett" beat "T. H. Paynter" 6,084 votes.

The 1,363 votes for "T. H. Paynter" were all cast in Carter County, and the 7,447 for "D. J. Burchett" were cast in traits. Boyd, Carter, Johnson, Lawrence, Martin and Rowan counties.

The Democratic nominee ran as "Thomas H. Paynter" and not as "T. H. Paynter," and the Republican nominee ran as "Drury J. Burchett" instead of "D. J. Burchett." The figures show gross carelessness on the part of some one who had the printing of ballots in charge. All the Republican votes in the counties named were cast for "D. J. Burchett" except the 17 "Major D. J. Burchett" ballots, which were polled in Lawrence. All the Democratic votes in Carter were cast for "T. H. Paynter."

We sent him all the particulars of the case, the amount of the reward, etc., but have not heard from him again. "The Governor has no power to provide for the expenses of a detective or other person inclined to hunt for Tate, as some people seem to think. A recent interview on the subject says Tate could be captured if a reward of $5,000 were offered together with the expenses incurred in his capture. Only the Legislature could make such a provision; the reward of $5,000 has been standing ever since it was first authorized and will probably never be withdrawn until the capture or death of Tate. That is the extent of executive authority, however."

Citizens of the Windy City Aroused From Their Beds

BY AN ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP SCHU-FELDT'S DISTILLERY.

The Building Slightly Damaged-Fourteen Sticks of the Deadly Compound Found on the Roof-A Member of the Firm Blames the Whisky Trust, While the Police Suspect the Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11. - A most dastardly attempt to destroy a large amount of property if not human life was perpetrated at the distillery of H. H. Shufeldt & Company, Larrabee street and Hawthorne avenue. .

At 6:15 o'clock the vicinity was startled by a tremendous explosion. Laboring men who were getting their breakfasts hurried to the street; woman and children who had not yet left their beds, hastily threw on a few clothes and followed the men to the sidewalks; window glass rattled down onto the street from buildings on Larabee street and Chicago avenue. People stood about with blanched cheeks not knowing which way to

An investigation brought out the fact that the explosion had taken place in the storeroom for highwines at the distillery. There was a great jagged hole in the roof, barrels of highwines had been knocked about promiscuously, while the floor was strewn with debris. The watchman, with others, then ascended to the roof of the building. It is a one story brick structure, with a flat roof, fronting on Hawthorne avenue. About six or eight feet from the hole lay a package. An examination showed it to be a parcel containing seven sticks of dynamite fourteen inches long topped with fulminating caps, and out of the end was a partially burned

The roof has many skylights in it. The theory of Mr. Lynch, of the firm, is that some one who knew the way of the roof had thrown the dynamite packages on it, hoping that they would crash through the skylights down into the storeroom. There were 18,900 barrels of whisky in the storeroom and had they been ignited a terrible fire would have

For many months the firm has been fighting the whisky trust, and while mentioning no names, Mr. Lynch is pursuing his investigation in that direction, although the police suspect Anarchists.

THE HAINESWORTH CANNON.

"Was the Powde Honest, or Was Dynamite Used to Burst the Big Gun?" PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.—The Times prints a spicy article under the caption: "Was the Powder Honest, or Was Dynamite Used to Burst the Big Gun?" The tenor of the article is that the cartridge that burst the Hainesworth cast steel cannon at Annapolis last week was prepared solely by men whose whole reputation depended on proving the Hainesworth gun a failure; quotes a member of the ordnance board as saying just before the test that either the gun or the ordnance board had to go to pieces, and concludes by quoting the Engineering and Mining Journal to the effect that the failure of the gun, while unfortunate, is not at all conclusive against the use of cast steel for beavy ordnance.
